AMERICAN TOILERS

Through the American Federation of Labor Will Discuss

Issues of Great Importance

Among Which are Those Arising from the Action to Demand an Eight Hour Law and Anti Injunction Law from Congress.

New Orleans, La., Nov., 12.—More than a million and a half of working men and women throughout the country will watch with interest the opening of the twenty-second annual convention of the American Federation of Labor in Odd Fellows' Hall tomorrow morning, and the work done there during the week will directly affect at least 800,000 persons. Delegates are arriving from all parts of the United States today. Some come from as far west as California and Oregon and some from Maine. There are delegates from Colorado, Montana, Nebraska and Minnesota and delegates from the regions bordering on the Great Lakes. All classes of labor, from the most skilled to the commonest and most poorly paid, are represented.

Two delegates, Messrs. Edwards and Arrandale, from the working men of Great Britain and Ireland, are here and will attend the convention to aid with advice and experience and to tell the American working classes how the old and successful trades unions of England operate.

Much important business is to come before the convention. Of the questions to be discussed, the leaders of the labor movement who are already on the field deem most important those arising from the recent action of the National Association of Manufacturers, in which they advocated organization as a counter movement to the organization of labor in the demand on Congress for an eight hour law and an anti-injunction law. "Recognition of union labor" will be the dominant note of the convention. It is quite probable that a memorial will be prepared for presentation to the labor committees of the House and Senate, outlining more clearly the differences which have arisen between organized workmen and organized employers.

Of equal interest will be the discussion of the anthracite coal strike and the work of the Arbitration Commission. The United Mine Workers will urge the adoption of resolutions calling upon the commission to embody in its findings a recognition of the mine workers' union.

The convention will express dissatisfaction with the Chinese exclusion law passed by Congress at the last session, and will ask resubmission of the exclusion measure originally presented.

Agitation for the bill requiring the branding of prison-made goods that enter into interstate commerce will also be renewed. The convention will also be urged to enter heartily into the agitation against child labor in the South.

There is nothing to indicate opposition to the present administration of the federation's affairs and President Gompers and Secretary Morrison, together with nearly all the other officers and committeemen, will probably be re-elected by acclamation.

STOCKHOLDERS

Will Appear to the Courts for Protection.

New York, Nov. 12.—The holding of a special meeting of the stockholders of the International Silver Company today at Jersey City is regarded by many stockholders as an attempt on the part of New York brokers holding some preferred stock and a majority of the common stock to get control of the company and force the present management out. The disaffected element propose to make an appeal to the courts and indications now point to a determined fight for control.

BANTAM WEIGHT

Championship of the World Defended Tonight.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 12.—Tommy Feltz, who claims the bantam weight championship of the world, will defend the title tonight against Tommy Love, the hard-hitting little fighter of Philadelphia. The mill is to be for 20 rounds and is to be brought off under the auspices of the Eutaw club. The two fighters appear to be in fine fettle and an interesting bout is expected.

DID NOT PASS

Upon Many of the Questions Which Arose

Out of the Operation of the Royer Act.

Two Plums Handed Out by State Auditor Guilbert Which Will Pay the Recipients Eight Dollars Per Day.

Columbus, O., Nov. 12.—(Special.)—The Supreme Court did not pass upon the many questions arising out of the Royer act, regarding jurisdiction of the court, Tuesday morning as was expected.

The judgment of the Licking county courts was affirmed in the case of Johanna Fitzgerald vs. Wm. Sasser, of Licking county. This was a scandal libel case, and she loses the $1,000 damages which she had asked for.

Two cases against Mayor Tom. L. Johnson, of Cleveland, and the city council of the same city, by A. W. Mayers to prevent the letting of a street lighting contract to the Sun Vapor Light company was dismissed for want of preparation.

Two Choice Places Given Out.

Frank E. Brown, of Dayton, message clerk of the senate, and A. F. Goodsell, ex-auditor of Portage county, have been appointed by State Auditor Guilbert, state examiners under the uniform system of accounts act. They get $8 per diem and actual expenses while employed. Brown will be placed in the municipal accounts department and Goodsell in the county department.

It is found that the law permits the state auditor to appoint as many examiners as he deems necessary to do the work. By some it is claimed that Auditor Guilbert is using the law to build up his combination to get the nomination for a third term in next year's Republican convention. It is likely that a limit will be put on the number he may employ by the next legislature. In the shape the law is at present, it is the finest vehicle in the world for the auditor to build up a machine, and with it. He could almost perpetuate himself in office.

He Put Aside the Crown.

Representative John F. McNamee has declined the appointment of private secretary to Congressman-elect Badger. Mr. McNamee desires another term in the state legislature, and by that time it is probable he will have developed a good sized congressional bee himself.

The Weather.

Washington, Nov. 12.—Ohio, fair tonight and Thursday; cooler in northern portion.

Live Stock Market.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 12.—Cattle 22,000, 10 cents lower; hogs 38,000, 10 and 15 cents lower, active; sheep 30,000, steady.

LIGHT VOTE

Was Cast in State of Indiana

Where the Republican Plurality was 35,564.

The Vote Last Tuesday was 65,894 Less Than Two Years Ago But the Republican Plurality is Greater.

Indianapolis, Nov. 12.—The election canvassers of the counties have made a report to the Secretary of State, with the exception of four and these have been secured by telegraphic advices. The total vote for the head of the ticket (Secretary) was 590,071, and the Republican plurality is 35,564. Two years ago the total vote on Governor was 655,965, with Durbin, Republican, holding a plurality over Kern, Democrat, of 25,163. This year the total vote fell off 65,894, but the Republican plurality is a fraction in excess of 10,000 over what it was two years ago.

The total Prohibition vote this year is 17,765, as against 13,451 two years ago, while the Populists polled but 1,367, as against 1,504 in 1900. Examination shows htat the Socialists and Socialist Labor parties made surprising gains. Two years ago the Socialist Labor people polled but 644, but this year the total foots up 1,731, a gain of almost threefold. Two year ago the Social Democrat vote was 2,240. This year, under the name of Socialist, and with the same principles embraced in their platform, they make a showing of 7,134. The Union Reform two years ago polled 227 votes, and this year disappeared entirely from sight. The Socialists this year developed their principal strenght in Allen, Bartholomew, Clay, Dearborn, Elkhart, Grant, Green, Lake, Madison, Huntington, Marion, St. Joseph, Vanderburg, Vigo and Wayne Counties in which counties there are large cities and important manufacturing or mining interests.

EXAMINATIONS

To Fill Vacancies in the United States Navy.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 12.—An examination of candidates for admission to the Naval Academy was held in Washington today, under the supervision of the civil service commission. This is rather an unusual time of year for such examinations, but this step was taken by the navy department on account of the urgent need of officers for the navy. About ninety candidates appeared to take the examination.

LEGISLATURE

Of Virginia Up Against New State Constitution.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 12.—The Virginia legislature assembled in regular session today. More than the ordinary amount of business awaits the action of the legislature at the present time, owing in a measure to changes resulting from the putting into effect of the new state constitution.

VIOLINIST

Of Some Note Started for America Today.

New York, Nov. 12.—Rudolph Aronson has received word that Kocian, the young Bohemian violinist who is to tour America this winter, sails from Liverpool today on the Majestic. On his arrival here he is to have a formal welcome from the several Bohemian societies of this city.

Live Stock Market.

East Liberty, Nov. 12.—Cattle light, steady; sheep fair steady.; hogs active steady.

IT IMPLICATES ALL

Of Ex-Governor Taylor's Official Family Except One,

In the Murder of Gov. Goebel.

Henry S. Youtsey's Confession Alleged to be in the Hands of Kentucky Officials. It Says That John Howard is the Man Who Fired the Shot That Killed the Governor.

FRANKFORT, KY., NOV. 12—THE ALLEGED CONFESSION OF HENRY YOUTSEY, NOW SERVING A LIFE SENTENCE FOR HIS PART IN THE CONSPIRACY WHICH LED TO THE ASSASSINATION OF GOV. GOEBEL, IS SAID TO BE NOW IN THE HANDS OF THE KENTUCKY STATE OFFICIALS. THIS CONFESSION IT IS SAID, CONTAINS THE NAME OF EVERY MEMBER OF THE TAYLOR ADMINISTRATION BUT ONE. YOUTSEY ALSO SAYS IN THIS DOCUMENT, THAT JOHN HOWARD, NOW UNDER LIFE SENTENCE, WAS THE MAN BEHIND THE GUN THAT KILLED GOEBEL.

IT WILL BE REMEMBERED THAT EX-GOVERNOR TAYLOR, WHOSE ADMINISTRATION IS INVOLVED IN THIS MESS IS THE PERSON WHOM THE GOVERNOR OF INDIANA REFUSED TO TURN OVER TO THE KENTUCKY AUTHORITIES WHEN ASKED TO HONOR A REQUISITION FROM THE GOVERNOR OF THE LATTER STATE, WHICH WOULD HAVE TAKEN TAYLOR INTO HIS NATIVE STATE FOR TRIAL FOR COMPLICITY IN THE GOEBEL MURDER. LATER HE WENT THROUGH THE STATES OF OHIO, INDIANA AND PENNSYLVANIA AND WAS A CONSPICUOUS FIGURE IN THE LAST REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION.

OUTHWAITE FOR MAYOR

)f the Capital City is the Present Democratic Program.

'olitics is Beginning to Boil Over the Coming Spring Campaign Before the Echoes of the Fall Battle Have Died Away.

Columbus, O., Nov. 12.—(Special)—Columbus politicians are hard at work preparing for candidates at the spring primaries. The spring election this year will be bitterly contested by both parties, and by every faction in either party, for the reason that the party that wins, and the faction that wins, under the new municipal code, will be given a great advantage, and placed in a position where it will be hard to overthrow them. The Democrats, determined to win, if possible, are figuring on nominating ex-Congressman Joseph H. Outhwaite for mayor. The mention of such a person as Mr. Outhwaite, a man of such wide and national reputation, has thrown the Republicans into a fit, and they will be forced to put up their very best man. In any event, it now looks as if Columbus, for the first time in years will have candidates for mayor who will represent the highest possible citizenship, and thus assure the city of an honest administration, no matter which party wins, something which Columbus has not enjoyed for many years—not since the flood.

The Suburb Voted Dry.

Marble Cliff the fashionable suburb of Columbus that voted dry a few weeks ago, witnessed a novel sight yesterday, the two saloons of that burg holding an auction and selling their effects off to the highest bidder. After the sale, the proprietors came in to Columbus, where they will open up business, and where they never need have fear of the "days" again running them out. The Arlington Country club, the fashionable club of Columbus blue blood aristocracy is located in Arlington, and the members are discussing the advisability of razing to the ground or selling the handsome club house, and quitting that berg, because they will not be allowed to have any intoxicants there.

STEAMSHIP

)ward Cassard Turns Out a White Elephant.

'hiladelphia, Pa., Nov. 12.—The steamship Howard Cassard, which was built several years ago by a syndicate to trade between Key West and Cuba, was put up at public sale today to satisfy a claim for wharfage. At the time she was built the Howard Cassard attracted universal attention. Thousands of dollars were spent to make her a marvel of speed, but on her first trial she proved a failure, and her owners sold her for a song. Since June, 1900, she has been laid up at Hoboken.

UNIONS ROASTED

By the Coal Barons in Their Replies to Mitchell's Demands

On the Part of the Miners.

In Order to Strengthen Their Position in the Present Controversy, the Operators Deny That the Unions Do Any Good Whatsoever.

Washington, Nov. 12.—The answers of Baer's brother coal magnates to the demands of president Mitchell are made public today. They roast unionism and say: "We deny that the unions of workingmen tend to better the discipline of the men and to the improvement of their physical, mental and moral conditions, and to preservation of friendly relations between employer and employe, but assert, on the contrary, that since the advent of the organization called "The United Mine Workers of America, in the anthracite fields, the workers there have been demoralized; that these who have joined the association, have tyrannized over those who would not join and committed innumerable acts of violence and opposition."

MILITARY MEN

Gather 'Round to See a Comrade Joined in Wedlock.

Bloomfield, N. J., Nov. 12.—Nearly two thousand guests, including prominent military men and leaders in New York society, were present at the wedding of Miss Helen Dodd Richards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Richards of New York, to Lieut. Matthew Hiting Hanna, U. S. A., military attache of the United States Legation at Havana, which took place this afternoon in the historic old First Presbyterian church. The officiating clergyman was the Rev. Dr. Hollis Burke Frissell, of Hampton Institute, Va., uncle of the bride. Lieut. Frank McCoy, aid to former Governor General Wood of Cuba, was the best man and the ushers were cadets from West Point.

INSANE MEN

Perish Because no Guards Were Present.

Charleston, S. C., Nov. 12.—Fire last night destroyed the wooden annex to the city hospital which was used for colored insane patients and three men were burned to death. There were no guards in the building, which allowed the fire to make headway before its discovery, in time to rescue the patients.

OFFICIAL COUNT EAGERLY LOOKED FOR

By the Thousands Who are Interested in the Result in Ohio.

Columbus, O., Nov. 12.—(Special.)—Unprecedented interest still continues in the official count of the vote of Ohio by the secretary of state. Forty-six counties have now been received and tabulated. The eight additional counties, to those reparted in these columns Tuesday, were Mercer, Miami, Monroe, Morgan, Pickaway, Portage, Preble and Gallia. The total vote cast in them was 47,834 which is 1,166 more than the total votes cast at the election in 1901.

The loss in total vote in the 46 counties now reported, as compared with the total vote in 1901 is 6,293—the total vote in these 46 counties being 294,134.

In the same counties the vote on secretary of state runs 5,523 behind the total vote in the state this year. Applying this rate of loss in total vote from that of last year to the whole vote of the state, it looks as though there would be a falling off from that of last year of 16,780, making it 823,367.

By the same process the total vote for secretary of state is estimated to be 14,738 behind the total vote in the state, which would make it about 808,629.

In these estimates it should be understood, however, that none of the large counties have yet been reported, and are not included in the above. There the opposition to Bigelow and the Democratic ticket seemed to be most pronounced, and it is likely that in their votes the falling off in both total vote for secretary of state will run ahead of the present rates of loss.

CUBA DOESN'T LIKE PLATT AMENDMENT

And May Appeal to the Court of Arbitration at the Hague.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 12.—Cuba is preparing, it is said, to denounce the Platt amendment as null and void and to reject it as part of its constitution. A report is unconfirmed as yet, is to the effect that, acting on the advice of prominent international lawyers, President Palma intends to appeal to the Court of Arbitration at The Hague, with a hope of securing from that tribunal a decision that the United States had no right to impose upon Cuba, the conditions contained in Platt amendment which limit her action as a free and independent nation.

RESIGNS TO SAVE FURTHER TROUBLE.

Mr. Hunter, Minister to Guatemala Will be Out of a Job Soon.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 12.—Mr. W. Godfrey Hunter, of Kentucky, United States minister to Guatemala, has resigned, and Lucius Chittind, of Louisville, Ky., has been appointed in his place. Considerable complaint has been made against Minister Hunter's administration of his office by American residents of Guatemala, and it is believed that he has come to realize the situation that would attend his continuance in the position.

GOOD WELLS DRILLED IN

In That Portion of the Ohio Field in the Vicinity of Findlay.

Wildcatting Near Rawson Doesn't Appear to be Overly Profitable, Especially in the Case of the Driller. Other Ohio Oil Developments.

Tiona	$1.54
Pennsylvania oil	1.29
Corning oil	1.22
New Castle oil	1.14
White House oil	1.09
Somerset oil	85
Lacey oil	85
North Lima oil	1.01
South Lima oil	98
Indiana oil	96

Aside from the town lot development in south Findlay, there is not much that can be called new in the outer districts of the county, though several excellent wells have lately been drilled, and the older areas are proving that they are not entirely in the back-number class.

In northern Findlay, Allen, Sternburg & Co., have a duster in their No. 39 on the Wyoming addition property, section 12 Liberty township. The Genesee Oil compnay is drilling No. 30 on the C. Ryal property, section 11, where the last well was good for 15 bbls. H. G. Keenan has completed No. 8 J. Furguson, section 10, a 15-barreler, and is drilling No. 7. J. A. Weatherly & Co., have rig up for No. 8 on the S. Baker farm, section 14. On his fee land in section 3 Liberty, E. V. Wyssbrod is drilling No. 13 well and in the same section the Bradford Oil company is finishing up No. 12 on the Sam Mosier, with rig up for 13. A. C. Hart's No. 5 on the John Cusac, section 4, was good for 30 bbls. The Ohio Oil company had a fishing job in the sand at No. 16 on the J. M. Cusac, section 9.

West of town, in section 22, the Cash Dollar Oil company has a rig up for No. 5 on the J. B. Karst farm, but has not started drilling. With these dry holes to its credit on this farm, the prospects are not exceedingly bright. E. Wanamaker is drilling No. 15 on the W. C. Cox farm, section 28. The Ohio Oil Co., has rig up for No. 9 A. Sweitzer, section 29, and Coyle and Davis have a rig in for their No. 18 on the Zack Rish, section 32.

In the northern portion of the township, Higgins Bros. are drilling No. 5 on the Mary J. Reimund farm; Kelly & Ely have completed a small well in their No. 22 on the J. F. Hastings farm section 2, and the Ohio Oil company is shut down at No. 14 on the Stoker lee.

The Ohio Oil company is delayed by lack of fuel in completing No. 13 on the J. H. King farm, in section 34 of Portage township. Eteen & Wisely have a rig up for No. 7 on the James M. Steen farm, same section.

In Allen township, the Oakland Oil & Gas company has a small showing of oil at 90 feet in the sand, in their No. 1 on the C. Hillshaffer farm, section 26. The Star Oil company has just cased No. 10 on the Albertus Decker farm, this section, and the Ohio Oil company's No. 12 Mary Wolf is delayed while waiting for a sand line.

On the Knoke heirs farm, the Ohio Oil company is completing No. 8, and it is showing up nicely. No. 7 on this farm gave so much trouble that the rig was moved, and a new hole is being drilled. No. 9 is still under way.

The Sun Oil company has a crooked hole at No. 4 on the Adam Rader farm, section 13, and has been compelled to move to a new location. In the same section, Cook, Gaston & Co., are drilling No. 5 on the P. B. Showman farm, and the Ohio Oil Co., is drilling No. 8 on the S. M. Trout farm, in section 25.

In the east field, there is the same routine of work, with an occasional producer a little better than the ordinary. On the V. H. Coons farm, section 3, Marion, the Trenton Rock Oil company's No. 13 was good for 60 bbls at the start, while No. 14 is pumping salt water. The Ohio Oil company has a number of wells under way in this field, but all within the defined areas. On the I. Davis farm, in section 2, there are 5 wells now drilling, and on the Uran heirs two are under way. Other operators have a number of new ones, on farms which have been figuring prominently in the Hancock county returns for some time.

The Southwestern Townships.

The Huron Oil company has encountered some trouble with its wildcat wells near Rawson, the contractors now supplying the difficulty. It appears from statements made by the drillers that the contractors never received their pay for drilling the first well on the Deets farm, and when 20 feet in the sand was reached at No. 1 on the M. Deets farm, they refused to go further without first receiving a payment. The Huron Oil company is a new concern, which first operated under the name of C. C. Dean & Co. This company has some leases in the vicinity of Rawson, and is operating in the northern portion of the county, doing a strictly wildcat business, and apparently with not a great measure of success.

Matson, Kennedy & Roy have moved the rig from the H. Stringfellow farm over to the J. H. Baker and will drill there.

D. W. Beatty is drilling No. 9 on the H. J. Rutlege farm, in section 25, and has completed a couple of good wells on the J. Grose farm, same section. No. 5 on this farm made 100 bbls the first 24 hours, and the indications are that No. 6 will make pretty close to as good a record. The rigs are up for Nos. 7 and 8.

Battles & Jones have finished up and put to pumping their No. 3 on the E. E. Urbin farm, section 26, with indications of a fair well. Their No. 6 on the S. Newcomer farm, same section, was a 10-barreler. A. N. Bryson & Co., are still drilling No. 6 on the Lewis Runkle farm, same section.

The Ohio Oil Co.'s No. 3 James Culmm, section 27, was a 50-bbl well, and No. 1 on the L. Folk is still drilling.

In section 35, the Detroit Oil company has a fishing job for the tools at 900 feet, on No. 2 Edward Cornwall. Battles & Jones are drilling No. 4 on the Caroline Marshall farm, same section.

E. V. Wyssbrod was in the sand at No. 7 on the J. A. Thompson farm section 36, with a fairly good showing of oil.

In Eagle township, the Ohio Oil company has a rig in for No. 3 on the A. Walters farm, section 24, and Price & Weill are drilling No. 2 on the N. Reel farm, section 25, north of their small first well.

The Cleveland-Hancock Oil company is drilling Nos. 12 and 13 on the J. H. Haley farm, in section 5 Eagle township. The No. 11 on this farm was light, making probably 20 bbls.

Testing for Oil.

Yesterday morning, says the Fort Wayne Sentinel, representatives of the Standard Oil Co., who recently secured leases upon several hundred acres of land near New Haven, began upon its efforts to find oil in Allen county.

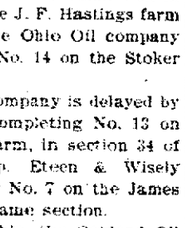

Several years ago a Ft. Wayne company did some prospecting in the territory, and one well upon the Hartzell farm was pumped to a capacity of ten barrels daily for a time. Upon the representation, however, that oil was not there in paying quantities, the local company abandoned the field and allowed its lease to lapse.

Now the Standard company is taking up the work, and this morning began sinking a well within fifteen feet of the old well of the Ft. Wayne company.

HE COULD HARDLY GET UP.

P. H. Duffey, of Ashley, Ill., writes, "This is to certify that I have taken two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure and it has helped me more than any other medicine. I tried many advertised remedies, but none of them gave me any relief. My druggist recommended Foley's Kidney Cure and it has cured me. Before commencing its use I was in such a shape that I could hardly get up when once down." H. F. Vortkamp, corner Main and North streets.

Every Exertion a Task

There is failure of the strength to do and the power to endure; a feeling of weakness all over the body.

The vital functions are impaired, food does not nourish, and the whole system is run down.

A medicine that strengthens the stomach, perfects digestion, invigorates and tones is needed.

What Hood's Sarsaparilla did for Mrs. L. B. Garland, Shady, Tenn., it has done for others. She took it when she was all run down—without appetite, losing flesh, and unable to do her work. It restored her appetite, increased her weight, and made her well and strong. This is her own unsolicited statement.

OBITUARY.

Eva Armstrong, daughter of Walter and Sophia Armstrong was born in Clinton county, O., May 19th, 1878 and died in Lima, O., Nov. 6th, 1902 from the effects of a surgical operation, aged 24 years, 5 months, 18 days.

Eva was converted and united with Grace M. E. church, Lima, O., under the pastorate of Rev. S. Baumgardner where she held her membership, until removed by death, to the church triumphant. Eva was greatly admired by all who knew her because of the beautiful disposition with which she was possessed. Because of her kind disposition and fortitude but few knew of the terrible suffering she endured often hiding it behind a beautiful smile which was her chief characteristic. Another beautiful characteristic in the life of Eva: she was never known to wrong anyone. But on the contrary, she always had a good word, apparantly for everybody.

Eva's last hours on earth, were devoted, though but able to whisper, to witnessing to her saving faith, in Jesus, and exhorting her friends to faithfulness, and to meet her in Heaven. These exhortations were especially directed to her beloved brother, Lewis, to whom she was greatly attached, especially induced, through his devotion and kindness to her through her former afflictions. Also instructing that her former pastor, Rev. S. Baumgardner, be procured to preach her funeral.

Eva leaves to mourn her sad and untimely demise, a mother, three brothers and two sisters—Her mother, Sophia Armstrong, Lewis Armstrong, Morris Armstrong, Britten Armstrong, and Mrs. F. M. Lochhead, of Lima, and Mrs. Mary Franks, of Montezuma, O., besides a host of friends.

While our hearts are broken and bleeding, we wish to thank our dear Heavenly Father; that through his son, Jesus Christ, He has provided for the broken heart, witnessing in his word, that he has sent him to bind up the broken heart, and to heal their wounds and conscious that Eva has committed her spirit unto the Lord we know also that He is able to keep it against that day. Therefore our great loss has greatly enhanced her joy.

A Startling Surprise.

Very few could believe in looking at A. T. Hoadley, a healthy, robust blacksmith of Tilden, Ind., that for ten years he suffered such tortures from rheumatism as few could endure and live. But a wonderful change followed his taking Electric Bitters. "Two bottles wholly cured me," he writes, "and I have not felt a twinge in over a year." They regulate the kidneys, purify the blood and cure rheumatism, neuralgia, nervousness, improve digestion and give perfect health. Try them. Only 50c at H. F. COAL SUPPLY OF THE WORLD.

The United States Leads All Other Nations on the Globe

In the Item of Supply of This Very Important Product. She Has Advanced from Third Place to the Head in Twenty Years.

Washington, Nov. 12.—"The world's coal supply and trade" is the title of a monograph just issued by the Treasury Bureau of Statistics. It shows that the United States not only leads the world in coal production but has advanced from third place to the head of the list since 1880. In that year the United States produced one-fifth of the coal of the world; last year its production was one-third of the total of the world. The coal production of the United States has quadrupled since 1880, while that of the remainder of the world has not quite doubled. The three great coal-producing countries of the world are the United States, United Kingdom and Germany. These three countries produce practically 80 per cent of the world's coal. Since 1880 the United States has increased her output by 221,000,000 short tons, Germany by 103,000,000 tons, and the United Kingdom by 80,000,000. The relation of these three great coal-producing countries of the world's coal supply, and the growing importance of the United States in that relationship are indicated by the following table which shows the production in each of the three, and in all other countries, in 1880 and 1901, and the actual increase and per cent of increase in each case:

Countries	Production in 1880.	Production. 1901.
United States	71,481,569	293,293,516
United Kingdom	164,605,738	245,232,578
Germany	65,177,634	168,217,082
All others	63,472,464	155,317,364

It will be seen from the above figures that the United States not only advanced from third to first in the period from 1880 to 1901, but that her actual increase in production was nearly as much as that of all the rest of the world combined, the actual increase from 1880 to 1901 being: United States, 221,816,947 short tons; all other countries, 275,611,188 tons.

The following table shows the coal production of the world in the latest available year, the figures for the United States, United Kingdom, Germany and France being for 1901, the others for 1900:

Countries	Short tons	Per cent.
United States	293,298,516	33.86
United Kingdom	245,334,578	28.32

"I am pleased to give my experience with Wine of Cardui as I am very grateful for its help. After my first baby was born I could not seem to regain my strength, although the doctor gave me a tonic which he considered very superior, but instead of getting better I grew weaker every day. My husband came home one evening with some Wine of Cardui and insisted that I take it for a week and see what it would do for me. As he seemed to have so much faith in it I did take the medicine and was very grateful to find my strength slowly returning. In two weeks I was out of bed and in a month I was able to take up my usual duties. I am very enthusiastic in its praise."

MOTHERHOOD is the noblest duty and highest privilege women can achieve or aspire to. Without this privilege women do not get all there is in life—too often they go through the world discontented, wrapped up in their own selfish cares and troubles. How different is the happy mother, watching her children grow into manhood and womanhood. A mother lives as many lives as she has children—their joys and sorrows are hers, as are their ambitions, triumphs and defeats. Healthy women do not suffer miscarriage nor does a woman who is healthy suffer tortures at childbirth. It is the woman who is ailing—who has female weakness—who fears the ordeal of becoming a mother. Wine of Cardui builds up the womanly in a woman. It stops all unnatural drains and strains—irregularities which are responsible for barrenness and miscarriage. It makes a woman strong and healthy and able to pass through pregnancy and childbirth with little suffering. After the ordeal is passed the Wine prepares a woman for a speedy recovery to health and activity.

Wine of Cardui, in reinforcing the organs of generation, has made mothers of women who had given up hope of ever becoming mothers. Wine of Cardui will cure almost any case of barrenness except cases of organic trouble. How can you refuse to take such a remedy that promises such relief from suffering? Wine of Cardui simply makes you a strong woman, and strong, healthy women do not suffer. They look forward to motherhood with joy.

WINE of CARDUI A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.

Old Lank Mark.

Josiah Jamison, of Cleveland, was in south Lima yesterday transacting business. Among other matters he ordered the removal of the old log house on south Central avenue. This morning workmjen began tearing down the building The house has been a familiar land mark for many years. It was one of the oldest in the city, and probably in the county It was the first house erected in which now constitutes south Lima.

Attended Celebration.

Rev. F. G. Rupert, pastor of St. Johns church, has returned from Cleveland, where he attended the celebration incident to the fiftieth anniversary of the dedication of the cathedral at Cleveland, also the unveiling ceremonies of a magnificent statue of the late Bishop Rappe, the first bishop of the Cleveland diocese. The festivities were attended by prominent members of hierarchy from various portions of the United States. Many priests from this section of the state participated in the impressive ceremonials.

Painfully Hurt.

James Kelley experienced a peculiar and very painful accident yesterday He was in the basement of the south Main street Presbyterian church where excavations are being made for a furnace. He engaged vigorously in the work, and became extremely exhausted. He came up and was standing by the fence at the side of Dr. Rudy's residence, when he suddenly fainted, falling against the fence. In falling he struck his face upon the pickets, which inflicted painful wounds. His nose was badly split, a deep gash was cut in his upper lip and an incision made upon his forehead. The unfortunate man was taken to the office of a physician where his injuries were dressed.

Quietly Married.

At his home on east Elm street, Saturday night, Rev. A. E. Davis, officiated at the ceremony which united in wedlock, Miss Mary Seese to P. E. Latham. Though somewhat belated, the congratulations of many friends are expressed. For the present they will reside with the bride's parents.

In Quarantine.

Mrs. Mary Kines, of Tanner avenue, who was called to Uniopolis, several days ago on account of the illness of her granddaughter, the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Myers, is now in quarantine, the child having died of diphtheria.

Birthday Party.

Wm. Zeltz, residing on St. Johns road was agreeably surprised by a large number of friends calling upon him last night to remind him of his birthday anniversary The evening was replete with pleasure. Excellent refreshments were served

A large number of men are employed in grading the streets for the Linneman addition which will be an extension of south Main street

Social Session.

After the transaction of business at Donze hall last night the Protected Home Circle enjoyed a social session Many pleasant features constituted the evening's entertainment.

Automobile Trip.

Mr and Mrs. Joseph Askins, of south Main street, returned yesterday from Putnam county where they visited friends. The trip was made upon the automobile which Mr. Askins, recently completed building The auto gave entire satisfaction

Pleasant Affair.

The Epworth League of Grace M. E church held a delightful social session at the home of Rev and Mrs. W. J Hagerman, on south Elizabeth street last night The principal feature of the evening's entertainment was a contest entitled, "Stings Not Found in Bees" The portion of the program was interesting, instructive and enjoyable All present were entirely pleased with the pleasant hospitality Before adjournment, delectable refreshments were served

Enjoyable Event.

Mrs A S Rudy of south Main street, was hostess to the members of the Ladies Aid Society of Grace M E church today. A large portion of the time was occupied with sewing. A number of social features were also enjoyed including a well appointed dinner Mrs Rudy's hospitality was entirely appreciated

Entertained Friends.

At her home this afternoon, Mrs. R. E Irving, handsomely entertained the members of the Ladies Auxiliary of the south Lima Baptist church. Many pleasurable events were arranged for the entertaining of the guests. Mrs Irving was pronounced a charming hostess.

Personals.

Aaron Alberts, of south Pine street left yesterday for Perry county, where he will be the guest of relatives for some time.

Louis Wellman, has returned home to New Knoxville, after a brief visit with relatives in south Lima.

E L. Grandstaff is home from Findlay, where he attended the funeral of a relative.

C. F. Hill, of Ada, called upon local friends yesterday, while enroute to Elkhart, Ind.

Mrs. S. H. Arnold, left yesterday for her home at Herring, after a week's stay with local relatives.

F. W. Herbert, who has been entertained by friends in this vicinity has gone to his home at Elkhart, Ind.

Rev. E. T. Bowdel, of south Elizabeth street, left yesterday for Williamsburg, Ind., where he will hold a series of evangelistic meetings.

A Miracle in China.

Actors in China are very well paid, but are much despised. No actor or son of an actor, says the Chicago News, can compete at the public examinations for the literary degree which is the doorway to public office, and consequently the actor's profession, when once adopted, is vital to those who follow it

An English doctor was called to attend a young actor whose leg was in a bad condition from careless treatment. The foot had been amputated as a result of compound fracture caused by a fall on the stage. Filth and neglect had done the rest, and there was very little chance of the man's recovery. Still the doctor felt justified in taking that chance and therefore amputated the man's leg. To the surprise of the doctor, the leg healed by first intention, and in a few weeks the actor was ready to resume work. The doctor fitted him with an artificial leg, and his good fortune began.

He at once undertook a part where his leg was knocked off, to the horror of the audience. After the apparent accident he was carried off the stage and presently reappeared, walking as well as before.

The Chinese are unfamiliar with artificial legs, and each time the dramatic incident occurred they regarded it as a miracle.

Aroused His Curiosity.

The agitated young man began:

"Mr. Brockman, you may have noticed that I have been a frequent caller at your house for the last year or more."

"Yes," replied the busy merchant, "I have seen you there now and then, I remember,"

"You will not be surprised therefore when I tell you that I want to marry your daughter."

"But"—

"Let me anticipate any objections you might have, Mr. Brockman. I am of good family, I am not dissipated, I have a good business and am abundantly able to support a wife. All I ask is"—

"But, young man"—

"I can bring testimonials to prove all I say. I have never wanted any other girl, and"—

"But"—

"And never shall want any other girl. From the first it has been a case of"—

"Look here, young man, let me get in a word. Which one of my four daughters is it you want?"—Chicago Tribune.

For sick headache try Chamberlain's stomach and liver tablets; they will ward off the attack if taken in time. For sale by Wm. M. Melville, old postoffice corner.

DEERS FOUGHT

To the Death and Their Carcasses Found

Upon the Edge of a Stream, Where the Fatal Battle Had Occurred.

Bangor, Me., Nov. 12.—Coleman Carnegie, of Pittsburg, has come out of the woods on Taxis river, New Brunswick, where, with his brother George, he has been hunting big game. Mr. Carnegie showed a magnificent caribou, but had no luck with the moose, having arrived too late for the calling season.

The Messrs. Carnegie are nephews of Andrew Carnegie and are great sportsmen, spending much of their time hunting and fishing. They have a game preserve of 22,000 acres in Georgia, where they usually spend their winters. They have hunted and fished in every part of this continent, and also in Scotland, and have killed about 200 deer each.

In their trip this fall they made a strange discovery. At the water's edge, and partially submerged, were found the carcasses of two buck deer, with their horns so firmly interlocked, that it was necessary to use an axe to separate them. The deer must have engaged in a fight at the top of the bluff overlooking the river and tumbled down the steep bank after having locked horns in combat That the fight was a savage one is shown by the fact that one of the deer had a broken jaw bone while the skull of the other was fractured The animals weigher about 200 pounds each. Buck deer are even more ferocious than bull moose, when thoroughly aroused, and it occasionally happens that carcasses are found in the woods, sometimes wasted to skeletons, with the horns locked in a death grip. It is not thought that deer could kill each other after becoming thus entangled, and the supposition is that the fighters that lock horns starve to death

Over in the Dead river valley the hunters had great fun trapping and chasing bears, which are as plentiful there as stumps. The bears are now fat and glossy just before turning in for the winter and the native hunters, who average two bears a day make considerable money from the sale of oil and skins.

If you have a bad cold you need a good reliable medicine like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to loosen and relieve it, and to allay the irritation and inflammation of the throat and lungs. For sale by Wm. M. Melville, old postoffice corner. 6

A Love Potion.

One of the leading sources of income to the old herbalist was the compounding of love powders for despondent swains and heartsick maidens. If a powder would not bring the desired relief, various juices of roots and herbs were mingled in a potion and sold as the love phial. Here is an old recipe: "Mistletoe berries (not exceeding nine in number) are steeped in an equal mixtures of wine, bee, vinegar and honey.

"This taken on an empty stomach before going to bed will cause dreams of your future destiny (provided you retire before 12 o'clock) either on Christmas eve or on the first and third of a new moon." Perhaps as a lingering remnant of this absurdity there is a current notion in some parts of the world today that a whole mince pie eaten at midnight will cause the reappearance of long departed friends, not to mention the family physician and the more interested members of the household.

"Tomato."

What is the earliest instance of the occurrence of the word tomato in any European language? The first I have in my notebook is the reference to "Americanorum tumatle," made by Guillandinus in his "De Papyro," a commentary on parts of Pliny, 1572, page 90. Later (page 91) he says, "Denique tumatle ex Themistitan, recentiores fere pomum aureum, et pomum amoris nuncupant," showing that both the Aztec name tomatl and the popular "love apple" were already in use. "Themistitan," I may add, is probably a misprint for Thenustitan—i. e., Tenochtitlan, a synonym for Mexico.—Notes and Queries.

Stepped Against a Hot Stove.

A child of Mrs. Geo T. Benson, when getting his usual Saturday night bath, stepped back against a hot stove which burned him severely. The child was in great agony and his mother could do nothing to pacify him. Remembering that she had a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in the house, she thought she would try it. In less than half an hour after applying it the child was quiet and asleep, and in less than two weeks was well Mrs. Benson is a well known resident of Kellar, Va Pain Balm is an antiseptic liniment and especially valuable for burns, cuts, bruises and sprains. BOTH 'PHONES . . ..NO. 84.

AN IMPORTANT ELECTION.

The next city election in Lima will be the most important in the local history of this municipality and both of the political parties are making quiet arrangements to put their best men into the field and to capture as many as possible of the offices to be filled at that time Under the provisions of the new code all the existing officers of the municipality are legislated out of their position and an entirely new roster from mayor down must be chosen This will make a clearing out of Mayor Rogers and all those elected at the election in spring The ropes are now being laid by those ambitious politicians to secure position upon the ticket without opposition, but there are many within the Republican party in Lima who vow that the mayor cannot have a renomination without a struggle

THE REMEDY FOR RELIEF FROM BOSSES.

Ohio has a tolerably good system of election laws The ballot is secret, and eighteen cities have registration yet in no state in the union save Pennsylvania is there so much machine politics and boss rule

The fault is not in the elections or the legislation but in the system of making nominations A handful of men can get together and frame up slates of delegates The slates go through and when the delegates get into the convention they do the bidding of the handful of bosses They name candidates and the people go through the farce of voting for them

Ninety per cent of the voters have nothing to do with an election They might as well stay away from the polls The other ten per cent compose the machine and they elect the candidates as well as nominate them

What figure does John Smith or Bill Jones cut in a convention? If he is put on a delegation he finds that he is in the minority as the others have been selected for a purpose

The Baker law might as well not be on the statute books The modified Pearson is worse than the old ward caucus

Nomination by petition is the best remedy that has been suggested It would give all parties a fair chance and it would give the voters an opportunity to express their real sentiments But this remedy patent as it was to all the people was rejected by the Republican legislature in the most contemptuous manner.—Toledo Bee

HOW IT WENT OUT IN INDIANA.

For the benefit of those who are interested financially in the vote of the state of Indiana cast on Tuesday last it may be said that the total vote on the head of the state ticket in that state is 560 071 and the Republican plurality is 7564 The total vote cast was less than in a similar election two years ago but more Democrats than Republicans stayed at home for the Republican majority is about 1000 in excess of that of 1900

A BIT OF COMFORT FOR OHIO DEMOCRATS.

In an editorial utterance in this morning's edition of the Cincinnati Enquirer the latest word of comfort to Ohio Democrats who have watched with anxiety the Republican plurality in Ohio this year creep away up close to that given Governor Brough in the celebrated Vallandingham campaign during war period The editorial says

Colonel William A Gaston the Democratic candidate for Governor of Massachusetts this year polled 159 000 votes the largest vote ever cast for a Democratic nominee for Governor of that state except in 1892 a Presidential election year when Russell received 186 000 The Republican Governor-elect received about 9 0 0 votes more than the Republican candidate last year, but Colonel Gaston is 4 000 ahead of Josiah Quincy, the Democratic nominee of 1891 The Democrats still have a good margin to work in before they reach the vote of 1892 and it appears that they are improving the time The Social Labor vote in Massachusetts in 1901 was about 11,000 This year it runs up to 21 000 What part this played as between the Republicans and Democrats is difficult to tell The result taken as a whole though will awaken emotions in Democratic hearts Old fashioned Democracy came from New England, and there are good signs of revival The demand for tariff revision has gained foothold By the time of the Presidential election the lines will be drawn tighter and all the changes are likely to be to the advantage of the Democrats It is a fact of which notice must be taken by even those who read as they run, that the substantial gains are in the East, while the far West where the most has been expected for several years under the new departure has been going to pieces Happily there is time for recovery and recuperation all round before the supreme hour of 1904

WHAT IT MEANS TO REDUCE THE ARMY.

Just what is meant by reducing the size of the United States army is worth inquiring into When a reduction from 70,000 to 60,000 men takes place, no regiment bodily disappears from the service nor is there a single commissioned officer retired or furloughed The Springfield "Republican" points out that the reduction simply means that each company in certain branches loses 10 or a dozen enlisted men Thus it appears that the last reduction in the size of the army is confined to infantry and cavalry and that each cavalry troop will now have 65 men instead of 75 and each company of infantry 65 men in stead of 80 All that is required to increase the army's size is to begin recruiting privates for those branches of the service which have not a full complement of enlisted men As the authority to order more enlistments rests solely with the war department and President it is obvious that these so-called reductions are not to be given any such meaning as used to attach to the idea of a small standing army The army is really organized all the time on the 100 000 basis.

The votes are no sooner counted at an election in Lima than politicians begin laying the plans for another campaign The passage of the new code gives Mayor Rogers but one year in office and he will stand for election again next spring He is already doing some foxy political work to make sure the Republican nomination.

Congress has authorized the establishment of a sanitarium for disabled soldiers at Hot Springs, S. D. The famed health resort of the Black Hills, and a board of managers have selected a site for the purpose bordering on the main street of the town, and including two of the best known springs. Its official name will be The Battle Mountain Sanitarium The board of survey went into the question of climate, water, etc, in a most scientific and thorough manner and has declared unqualifiedly in favor of the great South Dakota resort as being wonderfully well adapted for the government's purposes. These springs are not a recent discovery the Indians having known their healing qualities for almost 300 years.

And Terminals at Toledo

Being Viewed

By Officials of the C. H. & D. Railroad.

Superintendent Floeter Present During the Inspection Yesterday.

Shortage of Cars is Complained of But Other Roads are in as Bad If Not a Worse Condition.

A number of Cincinnati Hamilton and Dayton railway officials from points down the system arrived in town yesterday morning, says the Toledo Bee for the purpose of viewing the ore docks, and making a general inspection of terminals here They were G H Waldo, car service agent at Cincinnati R B Turner, general superintendent and S B Floeter division superintendent at Lima

Mr Waldo, the car service agent announced today that the shortage of cars on the Cincinnati Hamilton and Dayton was extreme but that the prospects looked bright for the near future The Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton is no worse off than the other railroads as all are troubled to secure cars

How it Was

In the wage question now being agitated among the switchmen of Chicago and the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen there seems to be a considerable difference of opinion between W G Lee first vice grand master of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, and Frank T Hawley grand master of the Switchmen's Union of North America It seems according to the statement of Frank T Hawley that the trainmen made a demand for an increase of 5c an hour and included the switchmen in the demand and to secure their seeming association in the demand they circulated cards approving of their course and secured the signature of the switchmen These when signed made it appear that the signers were members of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and these were presented to the railway officials This action the switchmen repudiated and asked for the increase on their own account They were offered an increase of 3½ cents an hour for foremen and 2½ cents for helpers and accepted this Hawley declares that should the trainmen strike the switchmen will not support them in it Looks Pretty Good.

The Big Four lines proper earned gross the fourth week of October $608 064 65 This is the best showing ever made for any one week

For the month of October the earnings were $1 796,361 16 being an increase of $14 764 20

The Peoria and Eastern division earned gross the fourth week of October $87 184 61 For the month of October the earnings were $245,426-19, being an increase of $11,702 71 as compared with those for the corresponding month last year

Well Spoken.

Clarence Beebe fireman on the C H & D. has been promoted to engineer on the main line Mr Beebe is well known to many Findlay people as he fired on the Findlay and Deshler branch for a time but about a year ago was put to firing on the main line He is a genial gentleman and his many friends here will rejoice in his good fortune.—Findlay Republican

Bright Days Ahead.

An eastern financial paper states that twenty of the leading railway officials of the country held a meeting in a hotel parlor in New York last week for the purpose of discussing the business outlook and that it was the concensus of opinion of the party that the coming year would be more profitable to the railways of the country than any of the preceding years. One of the men stated that every railroad in the country is having offered to it more tonnage than it can handle Continuing this man said "The labor troubles threatened have been greatly exaggerated. The railroads are prepared to meet the just demands of their employes. I have found in my railroad that the claim of the employes that the cost of living is higher than it used to be is, in a measure, justified. We find an increase, for instance, in the cost of supplies for our dining car service. The cost of materials in the equipment department is also somewhat higher. There will be no difficulty with the railroad employes of the country if they are willing to meet the case intelligently, as I believe they are. I think the railroads will make voluntary increases in the rate of wages, and that this labor question will be adjusted satisfactorily to all concerned.

Pennsylvania Earnings.

Indications are that the Pennsylvania will this year earn $215,000,000. During nine months of this year the gross earnings have increased $13,408,800 and the operating expenses $9,568,200. At even this rate the gross earnings will be $215,000,000. In 1901 they were $198,626,878, and in 1899 $152,220,106 In September all lines showed a gross increase of $1,566 700, representing an unprecedented soft-coal movement and a record-breaking merchandise tonnage At the same time it should be borne in mind that the cost of operation was $1 605,000 larger than a year ago, due to the higher labor charges, the increased cost of material and to the legitimate advance in transportation charges from the enormous tonnage handled

Along all Lines.

Erie engineer John Horn is running a switch engine in Lima, O. in place of Engineer Schoepper, who is away on a visit.—Huntington Ind, News.

Bulletins announcing the itinerary of the Pennsylvania pay car book its arrival in Lima next Wednesday The car will be in Ft Wayne Monday and Tuesday

The new union depot of the Lake Erie and Western and the Big Four at Lafayette was formally opened to the public yesterday evening Officials of both companies went from Indianapolis to attend the opening exercises

PROTECTED HOME CIRCLE.

The Protected Home Circle met last night at Donze hall and had a royal good time A large crowd was in attendnce One candidate was initiated into the circle and fourteen were elected to be initiated at the next meeting After some speaking and the regular order of business was over a fine lunch and a general good time was indulged in and all who was present voted the occasion a success The goat will be fed up till next meeting night to take the fourteen candidates through and all members are requested to be present to help enjoy a good time 11

H. L. NELSON, STATES

"I was 8 years old when I have suffered for years with terrible headaches and aching and burning eye and defective vision. I have tried every remedy and glasses I could hear of without relief By Charles Lincoln Smith's method and prescription glasses I have no headaches whatever and my eyes do not bother me in the least, and my vision is now perfect He also made his prescription glasses for my wife, which have proven a great blessing to her"

A. A. LOWERY, STATES

To Whom it May Concern

I want to state that my wife has been a sufferer from sick headache and eye strain for seven or eight years Every time we go anywhere on a train, boat or drive, she would have an awful sick headache: her eyes would pain dreadfully. We have tried glasses and treatment without any relief Even now with Charles Lincoln Smith's method of prescription glasses she seems perfect and has no headache whatever

A. A LOWERY

C STORM

"My wife has been afflicted for the past two or three years with watering of the eye and severe headaches We tried the method and prescription glasses of Charles Lincoln Smith and she has had more comfort with them than we ever expected was possible in fact her headaches have disappeared entirely and her eyes and vison are now perfect. He also made a most satisfactory pair of glasses for myself"

FRANK SHIPMAN

For many years my wife has been an intense sufferer from constant headache—which has almost made her an invalid—and poor vision hardly to be able to sew or read for the past three years We have tried almost every remedy without relief Having heard of the success of Charles Lincoln Smith, I concluded to try his skill and I wish to state that by his method and prescription glasses she now has a head trouble whatever and her sight is now perfect.

TARRH THIRTY YEARS.

Remarkable Experience of a Prominent Statesman—Congressman Meekison Gives Pe-ru-na a High Endorsement.

Congressman Meekison of Ohio.

Hon. David Meekison is well known only in his own State, but throughout America. He was elected to the Fifty-fifth Congress by a very large majority, and is the acknowledged leader of his party in his section of the State. Only one flaw marred the otherwise complete success of this rising statesman. Catarrh with its insidious approach and tenacious grasp, was his unconquered foe. For thirty years he waged unsuccessful warfare against the personal enemy. At last Peruna came to the rescue. He writes:

I have used several bottles of Peruna and I feel greatly benefited therefrom my catarrh of the head. I am encouraged to believe that if I use it a short time longer I will be fully able to eradicate the disease of thirty years' standing."—David Meekison, Member of Congress.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

HAIR NATURALLY ABUNDANT.

When It is Free From Dandruff, It Grows Luxuriantly.

Most preparations and dandruff cures, as a rule, are sticky or irritating things that do no earthly good whatever. When not diseased, grows naturally luxuriantly. Dandruff is the cause of nine-tenths of all hair trouble. Dandruff is caused by a germ. The only way to cure dandruff is to kill the germ, and, so far, the only preparation that will positively do that germ is Newbro's Herpicide—absolutely harmless free from grease, sediment, dye matter or dangerous drugs. It allays itching instantly, makes hair glossy and soft as silk. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect"—dandruff.

RANKS

First Among the Regiments

Of the State

And Will be Kept in That Position.

The Second to be Put in the Finest of Trim by Col. Ream.

Who Will Make a Tour of the Companies Next Week—Points from a Military View.

Matters in the second regiment have assumed a carmine hue which looms up like an Italian sunset, and Col Ream next week will start out on a tour of the various companies with the determination of making a division of the "Quick and the Dead." At the present time the second is the ranking regiment in the state and Lima has the ranking Colonel. But behind the scenes there are a few stragglers and Col Ream is not the man to play thumbs when there is a chance to make a showing. He does not want the honors for Lima, but he wants them for the regiment and of necessity he demands that the various companies come forward with an excellence which will combine to defeat the efficiency of any rival regiment in the state. At the present time there is a stir in military circles caused by the issuance from state headquarters which reads as follows

Headquarters Ohio National Guard.
Adjutant General's Office
Columbus, October, 30, 1902

General orders No 12

1 The armory inspections of the Ohio National Guard will be made as soon as practicable Companies will be held in readiness to appear at any time designated by the inspecting officer

The condition of public funds and property will be given the closest attention and to enable the inspecting officer to perform his duty without delay property must be laid out and placed in the most advantageous position Unserviceable property (a list of which should be prepared in advance and submitted to the inspecting officer) should be separated from serviceable property.

All books of record should be written up to date Letter and order books should be properly authenticated and order files completed

Treasurer's books must be posted to date, all receipts for funds being arranged and numbered to correspond with the book entries Any balance of funds on hand at the date of inspection must be verified by certified check on the depository in which located or in a manner satisfactory to the inspecting officer.

Company commanders will submit to the inspecting officer a list of contributing members, (if any) and also a certificate from the clerk of the courts that such list is on file in his office, as required by section 3055, Revised Statutes.

Muster rolls, in duplicate, must be prepared at the time of inspection and submitted to the inspecting officer. Blanks for the purpose will be furnished by these headquarters.

Troops will be paraded in fatigue uniform, with white gloves and without leggins. The inspecting officer will order any desired changes.

Commands parading less than 75 per cent of their strength, or failing to maintain a general average of 65 per cent, will be regarded as inefficient, and such action will be taken by the department as may seem best fitted to improve the future standard of efficiency.

Inasmuch as public property belongs to the general government and must be accounted for by the state, demand for payment, or proper settlement, will be made by the inspecting officer in all cases where a shortage is found to exist, and prompt action will be taken by the department to enforce liability for such loss Incidental funds must not under any circumstances, be used to make good property shortage.

Property not offered for inspection will be regarded lost.

By Command of the Governor.
GEO. R. GYGER.
Adjutant General.

Official, Henry M. Taylor, Assistant Adjutant General.

The companies included in the regiment are Findlay, A. Clowy B. Lima C and K., Tiffin E. Spencerville, F. [illegible] G. Fenton, I. [illegible] and Quincy M. It is the desire of Col. Ream to put these companies into a state of efficiency before the next encampment that will make the Second not only the ranking regiment in point of service, but deserving of the title because of superior excellence, and he stated this morning that he weak spots would be picked out and corrected or changes would follow where neglect was most apparent.

Close order drill will be discontinued and extended order and guard mount made the practice for the winter. It is his purpose to place the non-commissioned officers in a position to acquaint themselves with their duties and become in every way proficient.

Next year there will no doubt be a division camp and every field officer is to be pressed into duty to make a fine showing when the time comes Col Ream will start next week to visit the various companies and by the time he has wound up he will know just what the regiment needs, to put it on a splendid footing.

There is one thing the regiment can boast of and that is the regimental band, which is located at Tiffin. It is the old 6th regiment Knights of Pythias band and is as fine as any regiment in the state can boast of.

During the rest of the season there will be no drill work at the armory, owing to the changes to be made there, but non-commissioned officers school will be held

Concerning the company at Findlay, the following article appears in the Courier

Co. A. is at present in bad shape. The boys have been practically without a commanding officer for over a year and at present they have no captain at all R R Groves, their last commanding officer has sent in his resignation and the election of his successor has not been ordered yet

It is generally admitted by the officers and men of the organization that W L David will be the next commanding officer of the company.

Mr. David is a lawyer and a man of ability and will without doubt make one of the best, if not the best captain the company has ever had

Col James I. Ream commander of the regiment will inspect this company Wednesday night. It will only be a matter of a couple of weeks until the election will be held and then it is the hope of the officers to make a company that will be an honor to the town and a source of satisfaction to the boys composing it.

AN EASY WAY

To Keep Well.

It is easy to keep well if we would only observe each day a few simple rules of health

The all important thing is to keep the stomach right and to do this it is not necessary to diet or to follow a set rule or bill of fare Such pampering simply makes a capricious appetite and a feeling that certain favorite articles of food must be avoided

Prof. Wiechold gives pretty good advice on this subject, he says "I am 68 years old and have had a serious illness, and at the same time my life has been largely an indoor one, but I early discovered that the way to keep healthy was to keep a healthy stomach, not by eating bran crackers or dieting of any sort, on the contrary I always eat what my appetite craves, but daily for the past eight years I have made it a practice to take one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal and I attribute my robust health for a man of my age to the regular daily use of Stuart's Tablets.

My physician first advised me to use them because he said they were perfectly harmless and were not a secret patent medicine, but contained only the natural digestives, peptones and diatase, and after using them a few weeks I have never ceased to thank him for his advice.

I honestly believe the habit of taking Stuart's Dispepsia Tablets after meals is the real health habit, because their use brings health to the sick and ailing and preserves health to the well and strong."

Men and women past fifty years of age need a safe digestive after meals to insure a perfect digestion and to ward off disease, and the safest, best known and most widely used is Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

They are found in every well regulated household from Maine to California and in Great Britain and Australia are rapidly pushing their way into popular favor

All druggists sell Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, full size package at 50 cents, and for a weak stomach a fifty cent package will often do fifty dollars worth of good.

NOT GUILTY

Was the Verdict of the Jury in Molineux Case.

The Celebrated New York Murder Case Has Finally Reached an End.

New York, Nov 12—The jury in the case of the State of New York against Roland B Molineux, charged with murder, was brought to an end yesterday afternoon by the verdict of "not guilty" rendered by the jury The defendant who was adjudged guilty four years ago, is now at liberty. The case was bitterly contested and the result leaves Harry Cornish, athletic instructor of the Knickerbocker club, practically charged with the death of Mrs. Adams.

ROMAN CATHOLICS

Conducting an Intesesting Meeting in Washington This Week.

Many Archbishops Present

And it is Expected That the Question of the Independence of the Roman Catholic Church in This Country Will be Brought Up.

Washington D C Nov 12—The Roman Catholic Archbishops of the United States and a number of the prominent clergy are assembled in the city to attend the annual meetings of the board of trustees of the Roman Catholic University and of the Archbishops that of the trustees of the university commenced to day and promises to be most important. At the body's meeting the successor of the university rector will be chosen to take the place of the late Archbishop Corrigan will be chosen. The present rector is Bishop Thomas J Conaty of Worcester Mass. Bishop Conaty was induced to retire from his position at the head of the university, but it is believed that he will be prevailed upon to continue in charge at least until there is a vacant see to which he can be promoted.

The meeting of the Archbishops also possesses more than usual interest this year. The question of the independence of the Roman Catholic Church in this country that is taking it out of its present status as a missionary country has been much discussed before and it is expected that it will be brought prominently to the front at the present meeting. It is considered as unlikely that the Philippine question will be introduced the archbishops being content to let the matter rest between Gov. Taft and Mgr Guidi apostolic delegate to the Philippines.

DROWNED

While Fishing in the Miami River.

Court Stenographer Grosvenor of Troy, Met With a Violent Death.

Charles F Grosvenor a resident of Troy and who has been Court stenographer for the past fifteen years was drowned in the river in that city yesterday afternoon shortly after two o'clock.

Mr Grosvenor had gone to the boat house just above the dam preparatory to go fishing, and while bailing out the water from the boat he intended to use on his trip is supposed to have been stricken with apoplexy, causing him to fall in the water and drown. There was no one about at the time and assistance could not be given him.

On account of his position with the Court Mr Grosvenor was well known all over the county and in addition to these duties was a patent attorney of some ability. He was a member of the 147th O V I a worker in the Grand Army and a prominent Odd Fellow. He was about sixty years of age.

ANOTHER

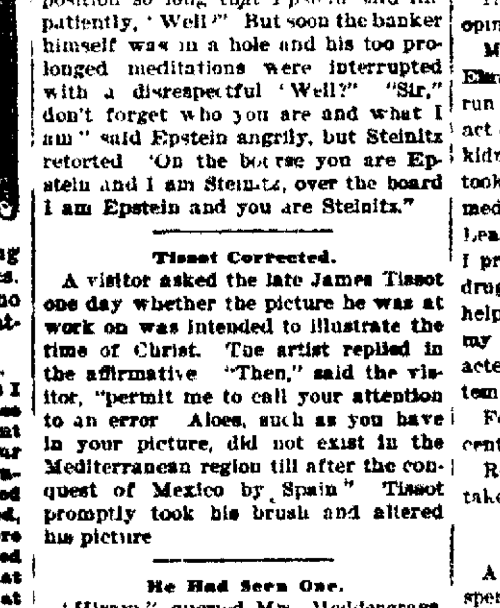

Victim of the Hunting Season.

Sylvester Shaffer a son of Fred Shaffer of Paulding went to the woods yesterday to hunt quail. In course of his travels he ran onto a possum which took refuge in a hollow log. Shaffer endeavored to poke the animal out with the butt of the gun. The load was accidently discharged blowing off the lad's hand and a part of the arm.

Sleeping Volcanoes

A thin vapory smoke, lazily ascending from its crater may be the only visible sign of life in the sleeping volcano, but within is a raging sea of fire, molten rock and sulphurous gases. Those who make their homes in the peaceful valleys below know the danger and, though frequently warned by the rumblings and quakings, these signs of impending eruption go unheeded. They are living in fancied security when the giant awakes with deafening roars and they are lost beneath a downpour of heated rock and scalding ashes.

Thousands of blood poison sufferers are living upon a sleeping volcano and are taking desperate chances, for under the Mercury and Potash treatment the external symptoms of the disease disappear, and the deluded victim is happy in the belief of a complete cure, but the fires of contagion have only been smothered in the system, and as soon as these minerals are left off will blaze up again. Occasional sores break out in the mouth, a red rash appears on the body, and these warning symptoms, if not heeded, are soon followed by fearful eruptions, sores, copper colored splotches, swollen glands loss of hair and other sickening symptoms.

Mercury and Potash not only fail to cure blood poison, but cause Mercurial Rheumatism, necrosis of the bones offensive ulcers and inflammation of the Stomach and Bowels.

Bowling Green, Ky., March 24, 1902.

Gentlemen: For over four years I suffered greatly from a severe case of contagious blood poison. I went to Hot Springs, staying there four months at a big expense. I then consulted physicians, who prescribed Mercury. Nothing did me any good, in fact, the treatment proved more harmful than beneficial. I mentioned my case to a friend, who told me that S. S. S. had certainly cured him. I at once commenced its use, and in six months could find no trace of the disease whatever. This was about two years ago. I continued S. S. S. for some time to make sure of a permanent cure, and I can truthfully say I am entirely well.

D. M. SANDERS.

The use of S S S is never followed by any bad results. It cures without the slightest injury to the system. We offer $1,000 00 for proof that it contains a mineral of any description. S. S. S. is an antidote for contagious blood poison, and the only radical and permanent cure known. It destroys every atom of the virus and purifies and strengthens the blood and builds up the general health.

SSS

We will mail free our special book on Contagious Blood Poison, which gives all the symptoms of the disease with full directions for home treatment. Medical advice is furnished by our physicians without charge.

Scant Praise.

The old saying that "praise to the face is open disgrace" is still firmly believed by some people. A young woman who was brought up by her New England grandmother, a notable housekeeper and example of thrift, says that the adage was a household guide in her family.

One day her grandmother went off to pay a visit, and the ambitious girl of sixteen scrubbed and polished, swept and dusted until it seemed as if there was nothing left to do. Her heart beat high with the hope of a word of commendation as she sat in the kitchen doorway waiting for her grandmother's return.

When the old lady arrived she looked about her with keen eyes but there seemed no chance for criticism until stooping down under the kitchen table which stood near the open door, she saw that the south wind had wafted a bit of fluff from the hen yard.

With eyes that would twinkle in spite of herself she pointed an accusing finger at this evidence of carelessness and said soberly

"Janet, my dear I see there's a feather in the kitchen. It's high time I came home!"

Mark Twain as a Bowler.

When Mark Twain was an editor in Hartford he was considered a formidable opponent at skittles. His favorite resort was a bowling alley in a cellar on State street not far from the steamboat dock. While the celebrated humorist was under Major Pond's management he was billed as one of the features for an evening's entertainment at the Young Men's Christian association hall at Newark. There was a bowling alley immediately underneath the lecture room. As Mark Twain was on his way upstairs with the major he caught a glimpse of it.

"What's going on in there—bowling?"

"Yes" replied the major, who knew his weakness, "but never mind that now. You're due on the platform."

"Run in somebody else for ten or fifteen minutes" said Mark Twain. "I shall do ever so much better after a little exercise."

And he did.

Pretty Cold Weather

Two boatmen on the Ohio river were talking about cold weather and of a certain severe winter. "It was just awful" said one of them. "At Cincinnati the river was froze tight and the thermometer went down to 20 degrees below Cairo."

"Below which?" asked his puzzled companion.

"Below Cairo, you blubberhead! You see when it freezes at Cairo it must be pretty cold so they say so many degrees below Cairo."

But light was bursting in upon the other. "No they do not" he exclaimed eagerly. "You've got it all wrong. It's so many degrees below Nero. I do not know what it means but that's what they say when it's dreadful cold."

The Sun on Every Side

A Texas citizen says an exchange is worried because the sun shines on each of the four sides of his house at some time of the day. The structure faces due north and south and is situated on parallel 29½ of latitude or practically 6 degrees north of the tropic of Cancer, where the sun is vertical in summer. He is carrying the problem about the country offering prizes for its solution among school children. "Why" he asks, "should the sun penetrate my front door in the morning, desert it for the greater part of the day, and again penetrate it in the afternoon?"

Steinitz and Epstein

When Steinitz, the chess player, lived in Vienna, one of his pupils in the game was Gustave Epstein among the richest bankers of the Austrian capital. One day the teacher puzzled over a position so long that Epstein said impatiently, "Well?" But soon the banker himself was in a hole and his too prolonged meditations were interrupted with a disrespectful "Well?" "Sir," don't forget who you are and what I am" said Epstein angrily, but Steinitz retorted "On the bourse you are Epstein and I am Steinitz, over the board I am Epstein and you are Steinitz."

Tissot Corrected.

A visitor asked the late James Tissot one day whether the picture he was at work on was intended to illustrate the time of Christ. The artist replied in the affirmative. "Then," said the visitor, "permit me to call your attention to an error. Aloes, such as you have in your picture, did not exist in the Mediterranean region till after the conquest of Mexico by Spain." Tissot promptly took his brush and altered his picture.

He Had Seen One.

"Hiram," queried Mrs. Meddergrass, "did you ever see one o' them air castles?"

"I low I hev mother" replied the old man. "I seed one o' th' tarnal things last time I wuz ter th' city."

"What air they built out uv Hiram?" asked Mrs M.

"Gold bricks, mother"—Chicago News.

Success Not Sure.

"Well," said the cheerful wife, who thought she had a soprano voice, "if the worst comes to the worst I could keep the wolf from the door by singing."

"I don't doubt that would do it," replied her pessimistic husband, "but suppose the wolf should happen to be deaf?"—Philadelphia Press.

CHANGE OF LIFE.

Some sensible advice to women passing through this trying period.

The painful and annoying symptoms experienced by most women at this period of life are easily overcome by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It is especially designed to meet the needs of woman's system at the trying time of change of life.

It is no exaggeration to state that Mrs. Pinkham has over 5000 letters like the following proving the great value of her medicine at such times.

"I wish to thank Mrs. Pinkham for what her medicine has done for me. My trouble was change of life. Four years ago my health began to fail, my head began to grow dizzy, my eyes pained me, and at times it seemed as if my back would fail me. Had terrible pains across the kidneys. Hot flashes were very frequent and trying. A friend advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have taken six bottles of it and am to-day free from those troubles. I cannot speak in high enough terms of the medicine. I recommend it to all and wish every suffering woman would give it a trial."—BELLA ROSS, 88 Montclair Ave. Roslindale Mass.—$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

Ants in Siam

M. Charles Moissen a French explorer in traveling through Siam observed a species of small gray ants which were new to him. These ants were much engaged in traveling. They lived in damp places and went in troops. To his surprise he noticed among them from time to time an occasional ant which was much larger than the others and moved at a much swifter pace and each of these larger ants M Moissen saw always carried one of the gray ants on its back. While the main body of gray ants were always on foot they were accompanied by at least one of their own sort mounted on one of these larger ants. It mounted and detached itself now and then from the line rode rapidly to the head, came swiftly back to the rear and seemed to be the commander of the expedition. The explorer was satisfied that this species of ant employs a larger ant, possibly a drone of the same species just as we employ horses to ride upon, though scarcely more than one ant in each colony seems to be provided with a mount.

KEEPING CABBAGE.

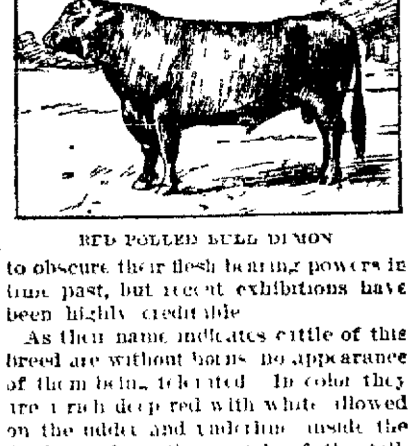

Why It is Difficult and the Prevalent Important Method.

It is a difficult matter to keep cabbages in large quantities through the winter. Every method in practice by large growers has its disadvantages on account of the easy decay of the soft watery leaves by overwarmth and the damage if not destruction of the stock by freezing. Thus one has to go between these two difficulties, and on account of the cost of the frequent removals of the crop it is generally advisable to store them in the field where they have grown, says Country Gentleman. The prevalent method adopted by large growers is this. The space between the rows 3 by 6, as may be convenient is furrowed out as widely as possible, and the plants, pulled as late as possible before risk of damage by freezing are placed as they are pulled and with the roots undisturbed head downward in rows four feet wide and tapering to one on the top as compactly as possible. Straw is then spread over the heaps until as late as possible with safety from frost when earth is thrown on the straw to insure safety from freezing. Air vents are made at intervals of six feet and these filled in with bunches of straight cut straw by which escape of any warm air collecting in the heaps is made easy. The ground should be leveled to enable the heaps to lie evenly. Sometimes these pits are made larger even eight feet wide and high but in some localities the smaller pits will be safest.

THE RED POLLS.

One of the Younger Breeds—Good Milkers and Good Feeders

The Red Polled is one of the youngest of the breeds. It was not until the year 1846 that the union of the Norfolk and Suffolk breeders gave the breed its name. From the start this breed has been famous as one valuable alike for dairying and for beef production and on the markets of England the Norfolk cattle take high rank. They were first brought to America in 1873 and since they have grown steadily. Here their beef making qualities have been neglected to some extent but they have turned strongly as valuable animals for the small farmer. Neglect to show them in high condition has also tended to obscure their flesh bearing powers in time past, but recent exhibitions have been highly creditable.

RED POLLED BULL DIMON

As their name indicates cattle of this breed are without horns no appearance of them being tolerated. In color they are a rich deep red with white allowed on the udder and underline inside the flanks and on the switch of the tail. The head is quite characteristic of medium size clean cut with a sharp poll which carries a good tuft of hair. The neck is of medium length body of good size and shape, legs of medium length. Red Polls are very uniform, prepotent and hardy and have many earnest advocates being good milkers as well as good feeders—G M Rommel

The Kind of Cattle to Feed.

The kind of cattle to feed depends on circumstances. As a rule the good well bred steer will make the most money because he makes the most of his feed—that is he puts it where it ought to go, into the high priced cuts of beef. But sometimes it pays best to feed common cattle and very common ones when they can be bought at a correspondingly low price. They usually make good gains and having been bought very low they may sell at a big advance over their cost to the feeder, though still away below the top of the market. Common light feeders are selling in Chicago at $2 50 to $3 and good ones at $4 75 to $5 25. There may be more money in the stuff costing $2.50 than in the five dollar stuff, because when fat a bigger advance may be secured for it. This is a year when good feeders are hard to secure at a reasonable figure and hence attention is called to the cheaper and commoner kinds. But the feeder should remember that the common cattle must be bought very low. There is no pleasure in their company, and it is only justifiable when they make good money, to do which they must be laid in cheap.—National Stockman.

Crop Items

The government's October estimate of the average yield per acre of oats is 34 5 bushels, the highest estimate of yield ever reported by the department of agriculture.

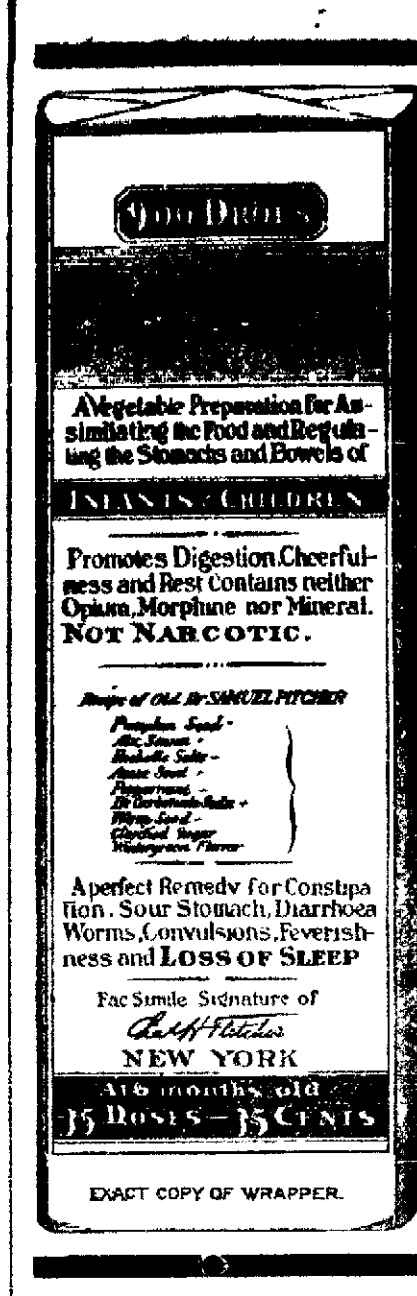

The corn condition Oct 1 was reported at 79 6 as compared with 77.7, the mean October average of the past ten years.

The preliminary estimate of the average yield per acre of spring wheat is 14 4 bushels average quality 87 7.

All of the important sugar cane producing states except Texas report conditions below their respective ten year averages for October.

The estimated average yield of hops in pounds per acre is 1,207 in Washington, 1,400 in California, 1,100 in Oregon, 1,300 in Wisconsin and 325 in New York.

Texas reports 11 points above the average for rice. Georgia about the average and other states from 1 to 22 points below, the latter being the estimate for Louisiana.

WHY THEY MARRIED.

Reasons of the Chronic Cranks For Entering Into Wedlock

Postal cards having been sent out to married men with the inquiry "Why did you marry?" a large number of responses came to hand from which the following are selected

"That's what I have been trying for eleven years to find out.—N."

"Married to get even with her mother but never have.—W."

"Because Sis told me that five other young men had proposed to her—C."

"The father thought eight years courtin' was almost long enough.—B."

"Please don't stir me up.—J."

"Because I did not have the experience I have now.—G."

"That's the same question my friends ask me.—C. H."

"I wanted a companion of the opposite sex. P S—She is still opposite.—A."

"Because it is just my luck.—P. J."

"I yearned for company. We now have it all the time.—Karl."

"Have exhausted all the figures in the arithmetic to figure out an answer to your question. Between multiplication and division in the family and distraction in addition, the answer is hard to arrive at.—Old Man."

"I married to get the best wife in the world.—Simon."

"Because I asked her if she'd have me. She said she would. She's got me.—Blivins."—Detroit Free Press.

A POLICEMAN'S TESTIMONY.

J N Patterson, night policeman of Nashua Ia writes, "Last winter I had a bad cold on my lungs and tried at least a half dozen advertised cough medicines and had treatment from two physicians without getting any benefit. A friend recommended Foley's Honey and Tar and two-thirds of a bottle cured me. I consider it the greatest cough and lung medicine in the world." H F Vortkamp, corner Main and North streets.

The Cause of Geysers

Bunsen has explained the eruption of geysers in a satisfactory manner that doubtless is possible. A cavern filled with water is deep in the earth under the ... the water in this cavern is ... the exit ... degrees since there is a ... static pressure upon it ... weight of water in the passage ... ural standpipe that leads from the subterranean chamber to the surface of the earth.

After a time the temperature of the water below rises so that steam is taken off in spite of the pressure and the column in the exit tube is gradually forced upward. The release of pressure and the disturbance of the water then cause the contents of the subterranean chamber to flash into steam and expel the contents of the exit pipe violently. These eruptions may also be provoked by throwing stones or clods of turf into the basin of the geyser. The water in the cavern below is disturbed by this means.

A Memorable Ride

The most memorable ride in English history was that of Sir Arthur ... which placed the House of Hanover on the throne of Great Britain. The act of settlement by which in 1701 parliament elected the house of Hanover to the British throne was passed by only one vote and this casting vote was given by Sir Arthur Owen, the member of parliament for Pembrokeshire. He arrived at Westminster dusty and travel worn only just in time to record his vote having ridden with furious haste from Wales for the purpose on relays of horses kept at all the posting houses along the route. To that ride Britain owes its Georgian era, hence its Queen Victoria and her descendants.

FODDER CHEAPLY STORED.

Comparatively Tight Storage Required—A Crib and Self Feeder.

Stover requires comparatively tight storage room to keep it in until wanted for feed. Stacked in a windy country before it can settle or become compact, it is liable to become scattered to the four winds. A very satisfactory method, according to a writer in Ohio Farmer, is to build up a rail pen, putting in a board floor, and run the stuff into it, packing down as close as possible. When filled, cover over with matched roof boards, a tarpaulin, slough grass or anything that will turn the rain. As the material packs very close of itself and is very impervious to rain it will keep well. Another method described and illustrated by the same writer combines cheapness with the "self feeder" idea. The crib is made of the slat fencing or cribbing as used by the farmers in the west when their crops are larger than their crib room. The slatting is made usually in five and six foot widths and two ties put up, making the combined height from ten to twelve feet. A floor of boards is put in and the bottom tier of slatting fastened to the supporting posts five or six inches from the floor boards, which should project two or three feet outside the slatting. The cattle will pick up clean all the feed they will pull out through the space between the boards and slatting. When no more can be reached by the cattle, the space around the bottom can be filled by the attendant of the stock with an iron rod sharpened and bent into a hook at the end.

STOVER CRIB AND SELF FEEDER.

BABY BEEF.

It Gets Quick Returns and Best Profit From Corn and Alfalfa.

What does the production of baby beef mean? According to the Kansas experiment station, it represents the following: Nothing to the ranchman who has cheap pastures; a complete change in the methods of crop production and of feeding to the farmer with high priced limited pastures. The production of baby beef gives quick returns on the investment. The farmer who raises and fattens mature steers has to furnish pasture for his cows, the yearlings, the two-year-olds and often for the three-year-old steers. He waits three years from the time the calf is born until he realizes on the investment, and only one-fourth of his herd are cows producing calves. If the farmer will produce baby beef, he can fill his pasture to the full limit with cows producing calves, and he will realize on the calves twelve months from the date of their birth. Capital is turned annually instead of once in every three years. The farmer's grain will produce from 50 to 100 per cent more pounds of baby beef than it will of beef from a mature steer, and for the past three years the baby beef animal has sold for as high prices per hundred as has the average steer. In producing baby beef the farmer can market his heifer calves at the same prices as his steers and will usually get more for the twelve-month-old heifer than he would for the same animal if kept until maturity.

Demand For Baby Beef.

The packers report that they have never been able to supply the demand for baby beef and that there is no likelihood of the market ever becoming oversupplied, even though stockmen generally should go to producing it. The best demand and the highest prices are in the months of April, May and June. During these months butchers want light cuts, and they find less waste in baby beef than in that from larger cattle. After July 1 the price for baby beef has a tendency to become lower, as light grass fed cattle compete. The best prices are obtained for well fattened calves weighing from 600 to 1,000 pounds. Calves either above or below these weights do not top the market. The age should be from twelve to fourteen months.

The Great Food Combination.

Alfalfa hay and corn gave the greatest gains in a feeding experiment followed by alfalfa hay and Kaffir corn grain. At all times through the seven months' feeding the calves fed alfalfa hay appeared to be in the best condition, and they finished the best. The corn and Kaffir corn were fed whole for the first eighty-three days. After that both were ground. With all lots during the whole time of the experiment the roughage was fed whole, and the grain was fed mixed with it.

A Healthy Tone In the Sheep Market.

A healthy tone in the sheep market, with prices holding up well, is reported by Country Gentleman. Market conditions tend to make holders very independent. In butchers' stock also the best cows and heifers sell well and also the grade of cutters and canners. Texans are steady.

BATHING SUITS.

Smart but Correct Form—Good Materials and Colors.

Several smart looking women were discussing the other day how they should have their new bathing suits made, and they were all apparently quite at a loss about it and uncertain as to what was the most correct style, although they all understood the art of gowning admirably. The reason doubtless was that there is no fixed fashion for bathing suits, and, while many women are quite indifferent about their appearance in the water and will buy a ready made suit and take their dip in it with equanimity, others go to the opposite extreme and use the picturesque to such an extent that they are voted bad form by those who dislike to make themselves conspicuous.

A bathing suit, however, like every other dress worn by a woman, should be carefully planned and made especially for the wearer, for as much depends upon its fit and style as with any other frock, but it should have little or no trimming and rely only on the cut and the extreme neatness of finish for its air of distinction, for it goes without saying that no one who is truly well bred desires to draw attention to herself at such a time by anything that is too striking. The best looking bathing frocks are undoubtedly the black ones, although dark blue has much the same effect.

There are three materials that have the best vogue, black taffetas, black satin and the best quality of black or dark blue mohair. The former perhaps is the favorite, but it does not wear well, while satin lasts for years. A good quality of satin, with a linen back, is what is generally used, so it is not an expensive fabric. It does not "crack off," is becoming and sheds water admirably. The smartest looking waists are made like a well cut blouse shirt and may be either box plaited or tucked, to suit the fancy of the wearer.

Many women now go in for protecting their arms and necks and wear long sleeves made with a cuff exactly like a shirt, but the prettiest is the short plaited elbow sleeve, flaring out into a little ruffle. A black stock, with a white turnover collar, or an all white pique stock is correct and looks exceedingly neat, while if long sleeves are worn tiny white cuffs give finish.

In short, a woman should have the accessories of her bathing suit as smartly put on as those of her shirt waist. The skirt should always cover the knees to be graceful, and this summer skirts are not made so scant, the best looking ones being plaited nearly to the knees and ending in a ruffle.—New York Tribune.

THE COIFFURE.

A Becoming Fancy Illustrated—Tiaras and Jeweled Combs.

While a certain general style of coiffure prevails, considerable ingenuity is also exercised in adapting it to the requirements of the individual. A pretty fancy for a certain style of face has been satisfactorily carried out as shown in the cut. It requires deftness of execution, but the girl with the right knack can make it a success and have the pleasing consciousness of looking something out of the ordinary run.

A SUCCESSFUL COIFFURE.

The dressing of the hair for evening functions is very important and requires a great deal of consideration. If the hair is dressed low, an empire wreath, a string of pearls, a row of single stones or enameled leaves may surround it.

The majority of women in society have tiaras or at all events jeweled combs after that shape to resemble them. The tiara of today is lighter and far prettier in design than that seen a few years ago.

Fashion's Echoes.

Green duck belts lined with white pique are among taking summer fancies.

Polka dotted canvas ribbons furnish smart trimming for linen gowns.

The tulle bow is as popular as ever, but worn at the throat instead of the back of the neck.

Cream colored etamine is one of the good gown fabrics for the cooler days.

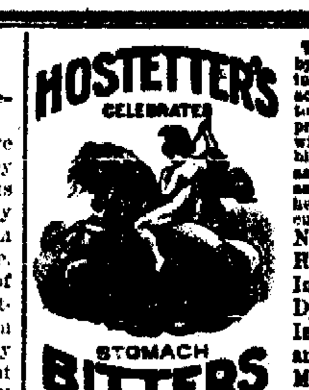

Among old styles revived in parasols are the very pronounced arch of the frame and the folding handle.

Openwork thread stockings are dreams of beauty.

A wide border of artificial flowers—roses, forgetmenots or pansies—adorns white parasols that are to be carried with flower hats.

Newest fashions conspire to cut off the figure. Some of the Paris frocks are ruffled to the waist.

Combinations of two materials are creeping in.

The Best Remedy for Croup.

From the Atchison, Kan., Daily Globe.

This is the season when the woman who knows the best remedies for croup is in demand in every neighborhood. One of the most terrible things in the world is to be awakened in the middle of the night by a whoop from one of the children. The croup remedies are almost as sure to be lost, in case of croup, as a revolver is sure to be lost in case of burglars. There used to be an old-fashioned remedy for croup, known as hive syrup and tolu, but some modern mothers say that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is better, and does not cost so much. It causes the patient to "throw up the phlem" quicker and gives relief in a short time. Give this remedy as soon as the croupy cough appears and it will prevent the attack. It never fails and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Wm. M. Melville, old postoffice corner.

Mrs. Fangle—The papers mention a man who has cooked his own breakfast for fifteen years.

Mr. Fangle—He must have been very hungry when he finally got it done.

There is no cough medicine so popular as Foley's Honey and Tar. It contains no opiates or poisons and never fails to cure.

H. F. Vortkamp, corner Main and North streets.

"I wouldn't marry the best man that ever lived," snapped Miss Oldmayde.

"You can't dear," simpered Mrs. Nuliwed, who was on her honeymoon.

"Why!" flared the older maid.

"Simply because I married him—didn't I, George?"

H. F. Vortkamp guarantees every bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and will refund the money to anyone who is not satisfied after using two-thirds of the contents. This is the best remedy in the world for la grippe, coughs, colds and whooping cough and is pleasant and safe to take. It prevents any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia. nov 1-4m

COMPLAINED HE WAS ILL,

Sat Down on a Platform on East Wayne Street and Expired.

Michael Fitzgerald, a Well Known Veteran of the Civil War and an Old Resident of Lima Dies Very Suddenly.

Michael Fitzgerald, an aged and well known resident of this city, was found dead on a platform at the rear of Eli Brentlingers saloon on east Wayne street about 1 o'clock this afternoon His remains were removed to Bennetts morgue and his son Michael Fitzgerald Jr formerly of the L E & W shops this city and now foreman a boiler shop at Marion Ind was forwarded a telegram announcing the death of his aged father

The deceased was well known by the business men of the city generally and although he was an eccentric individual his jovial characteristics made him many friends who would never refuse him a favor He was a widower for many years and the last place he called home was a small frame dwelling at 259 south Pine street where he made his home with some friends He was a veteran of the civil war and with the aid of occasioned earnings at common labor he lived on a small pension His last regular employment was that of a track laborer for the Lima Electric Railway and Light Company

This morning Mr Fitzgerald called on the clerks in the auditors office in the court house and complained of a severe pain in his breast He was given some money and after expressing his gratitude left the building About 12 o'clock he called at Alex Frankels cafe and asked for some whisky still complaining that he felt very badly From there he walked to Brentlingers place on east Wayne street and after staying in the bar room a few minutes went out through a side door and sat down on a wooden platform where a few minutes later, he was found dead

Coroner Bice and Drs Burton and Foltz held a post mortem examination over the remains at Bennetts morgue and found that death had been caused by heart trouble
